Policy & Procedure 11 - Review and Continual Improvement of the Accreditation Framework

1. Preamble

It is ASAR's objective to promote high standards of medical sonography in Australia which includes setting uniform, minimum standards of sonographer education and education by assessing and accrediting courses in all disciplines of sonography.

The Accreditation Framework and the procedures which underpin it must undergo an ongoing cycle of review to maintain consistency with the principles of accreditation and for continuous improvement. All stakeholders should have an opportunity for input or participation in the periodic review of the Framework as a whole.

2. Policy Principles

This policy details the procedures by which the ASAR will conduct regular review of the Accreditation Framework to ensure all elements continue to be of relevance. It will also ensure ASAR remains in a robust position to respond to and operate within the evolving education and training sector.

ASAR seeks to continually improve the Accreditation Framework over time by constantly evaluating and improving all aspects of the framework including its efficiency, effectiveness and flexibility.

3. Accreditation Principles

The accreditation principles underpinning the approach to accreditation are:

Legitimacy

The accreditation procedure must be legitimate and acceptable to stakeholders. Such legitimacy includes impartiality in relation to particular stakeholder groups; and appropriate respect for the academic autonomy of course providers. The accreditation procedure must also be consistent with current legislation and guidelines.

Validity

The accreditation procedure must be valid in that the procedures are appropriate for assessing the determination of criteria. These criteria must be evidence-based and explicitly related to the necessary graduate competency outcomes and other specified purposes of the accreditation procedure. The period and status of accreditation must be appropriate to the nature of the programs and developments in the professional field.
